

Habitat on the Hill

The Executive Director, Landis Griffin, and a Habitat Homeowner, Kathleen Moore, recently visited Washington D.C. to share inspiring stories of their journey towards achieving homeownership and to emphasize the importance of having a safe and affordable home.

They met with members of Alabama's legislative delegation and advocated for sustainable housing programs that benefit families in need and contribute to the overall well-being of communities.

Along with several other local Habitat representatives, they stressed the importance of providing impactful housing solutions that help families achieve their dreams of owning a home.

THE WOMEN BUILD INITIATIVE OFFERS A PLATFORM FOR WOMEN TO ACTIVELY CONTRIBUTE TO THEIR COMMUNITIES. IT WELCOMES ALL WOMEN, IRRESPECTIVE OF THEIR CONSTRUCTION EXPERIENCE, TO LEARN AND CONTRIBUTE TO BUILDING OR REPAIRING HOMES.
